

National Service Scheme (NSS)

The Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports of the Government of India oversees the National Service Scheme (NSS), a Central Sector program. It gives Indian students the chance to participate in a range of government-run community service projects and initiatives. Akshaya College of Arts and Science's National Service Scheme (NSS) is a dynamic and essential component of the college's dedication to social responsibility and community service. The college's NSS program was started with the intention of encouraging a volunteering, social consciousness, and active involvement in community development. It has had a tremendous impact on the school and the neighbouring areas. Throughout the year, NSS volunteers plan and take part in a wide range of events and initiatives under the direction of knowledgeable faculty mentors. These include blood donation drives, campaigns to raise public awareness of significant social concerns, tree planting projects, campaigns to improve hygiene and sanitation, and educational initiatives for children from disadvantaged backgrounds. The NSS unit of Akshaya College of Arts and Science actively participates in these kinds of activities, which enhances society as a whole.

Moto

The National Service Scheme's motto is "Not Me, But You." The Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports of the Government of India oversees the National Service Scheme (NSS), a Central Sector program. It gives Indian students the chance to participate in a range of government-run community service projects and initiatives. The NSS exists only to give young students practical experience performing community service.

An active participant in the community service program and volunteer for the NSS would be someone who has the exposure and experience to be one of the following:

- (i) a skilled social activist;

(ii) a productive administrator.

(iii) a one who is aware of human nature. We have one assisted unit in Akshaya College of Arts and Science, Coimbatore, which is part of Bharathiar University.
